Leviticus 26:12

“I will walk among you and I will be your God, and you shall be my people”

Malachi 3:1

“Behold, I send my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me. And the Lord whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple.”

Hebrews 10:19

“Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his own flesh, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.”

John 14:16-17

“And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you.”

“God no longer dwells with his people in a sanctuary which they make for him; he dwells in them, and they are his temple.”

- R.J. McKelvey

“Corporately, the Christian community is the new divine sanctuary, the place where the living God most fully expresses his presence.”

- Murray J. Harris

“God will no longer be worshipped here and there, wherever two or three are gathered together in the name of Christ as strangers and aliens in a world which is not their home. There he will be worshipped permanently on the heavenly mountain by the whole community of saints of all times and places, along with the heavenly hosts of angels and archangels. There, there will be no more sin to be atoned for, no more weakness of the flesh to be mortified, no more forces of the evil one to be resisted: only the people of the King, gathered in the presence of the King, to worship the King forever.”

- Iain Duguid
